

Resources

Autism Alliance of Michigan: Leads collaborative efforts across the state that helps to improve the quality of life for individuals with autism through education, access to comprehensive services, community awareness, inclusion efforts, and coordinated advocacy.

autismallianceofmichigan.org

Livonia PTSA Council: Information about the Livonia PTSA Council and individual PTA/PTSA units within the Livonia Public Schools District. Other information you will find includes meeting schedules, events, committees, and more.

livoniaptscouncil.org

Livonia Public Schools Student Services: The Student Services Department focuses on offering support to students, parents, and staff in order to help children succeed in their educational program by better understanding unique learning needs and addressing those needs in the classroom.

www.livoniapublicschools.org/domain/256

Wayne County Parent Advisory Committee: Wayne County Parent Advisory Committee (WCPAC) members often serve as an information source for other parents in their community. Each monthly business meeting of the WCPAC includes a parent training segment on issues identified by the members.

www.resa.net/teaching-learning/special-education/parent-advisory-committee

Michigan Alliance for Families: Michigan Alliance for Families provides information, support, and education for families who have children and young adults (birth to 26 years of age) who receive (or may be eligible to receive) special education services. This website can help you with finding information on special education issues as well as disability specific information.

www.michiganallianceforfamilies.org

Medical Alert Tag Needs: Helps bring peace of mind that comes with knowing the tags can speak for your loved ones when they can't www.lazrartstore.com/Alert_Tags.html

Michigan Rehabilitation Services: They deliver individualized services that assist potential employees with differing abilities to prepare for, pursue and retain careers.

www.michigan.gov/leo/bureaus-agencies/mrs

MiABLE: MiABLE accounts provide eligible individuals the opportunity to save and fund a variety of qualified expenses without endangering eligibility for certain benefits that are critical to their health and well-being, such as Medicaid and Supplemental Security Income.

savewithable.com/mi/home.html

Disability Rights Michigan: DRM advocates and lawyers advise individuals with disabilities of their rights and responsibilities and advocate for their human, civil and legal rights within the state of Michigan. DRM has broad access authority to monitor institutions and advocate for people with disabilities who live in them.

<https://www.drmich.org/services/>

Michigan Department of Special Education (MDOSE): The OSE has several units to handle its general supervision responsibilities: Administration, Program Finance, Program Accountability, and Performance Reporting. The OSE is also responsible for the Low Incidence Outreach program and the Michigan School for the Deaf. The Office of Special Education Directory and Overview (PDF) provides an overview of the activities and initiatives within the MDE Office of Special Education.

<https://www.michigan.gov/mde/services/special-education/about-ose>

Michigan Administrative Rules for Special Education (MARSE) Document: The Michigan Administrative Rules for Special Education (MARSE) With Related IDEA Federal Regulations includes the full Michigan rules and pairs each rule with any of the relevant regulations from the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

The Arc Michigan: The mission of The Arc Michigan is to ensure that people with Developmental Disabilities are valued in order that they and their families can participate fully in and contribute to their community.

<https://arcmi.org/>

Michigan Transition Services Association: Michigan Transition Services Association is dedicated to providing support to their members who assist students and young adults with disabilities as they transition through school to achieve their post-school goals.

<http://www.michigantsa.org/>